

Northern California Injection Molding

INJECTION MOLDING SPECIALISTS

[3 Careers Listings, 11-10-17]

Manufacturing Engineer

Employer: Northern California Injection Molding, Inc.

Job Duties:

- Develop technical training and documentation for manufacturing new and existing products.
- Provide support for process documentation – standardize work, work flow and training.
- Design and develop manufacturing support equipment.
- Develop, evaluate, and improve manufacturing and assembly processes and methods to obtain maximum productivity levels.
- Identify and implement cost reductions.
- Assist in maintaining ISO Quality Standards plant-wide.
- Monitor performance of process parameters that produce non-conforming products, low yields or product quality issues. Interface with Quality and Engineering Departments to resolve manufacturing production issues.

Requirements:

- Completed or in pursuit of Bachelor of Science in Engineering or relative manufacturing experience is a plus.
- Proven ability to use Microsoft Excel, Word, PowerPoint.
- Ability to read and understand engineering drawings.
- Knowledge of ISO-9001-2008 and/or AIAG standards is a plus.

How to Apply:

Send to employment@ncimolding.com (or FAX 916-853-0711) with the job title above specified in the subject line.

Include the following information as a minimum:

- Cover letter or introduction, description of yourself
- Resume

Plastic Injection Molding Maintenance Technician

Employer: Northern California Injection Molding, Inc.

Job Description:

The ideal candidate for the Maintenance Technician will have minimum of 5 years of experience in Industrial electrical/ mechanical repairs and troubleshooting. The candidate should carry a strong emphasis in hydraulics, electrical troubleshooting, mechanical troubleshooting, installations of new equipment and PLC programming. Looking for a self-starter, very confident in your abilities and highly motivated. You should possess the desire to continuously learn new things and have the ability to teach others. Great people skills and interact well with others is a must. You should possess a, "Can Do", and positive attitude.

Job Duties:

The Maintenance Technician will perform preventative maintenance, troubleshooting, repairs and installations on plastic injection molding equipment and auxiliary equipment. There will occasionally be work on building facilities. Other tasks include working on servo packs, servo driven robots and controls and designing electrical controls, mechanical modifications to equipment, and finding solutions to complex problems. There will be apprentices that will require teaching and guidance from the ideal candidate. The maintenance technician will be required to fill out work orders and complete logs of work and maintenance functions. This position reports to the Maintenance Supervisor.

This facility has an outstanding safety record and it will be part of the job duties to maintain that safety.

Northern California Injection Molding

INJECTION MOLDING SPECIALISTS

Requirements:

- Minimum of 5 years verifiable industrial maintenance, some education and proven track record may substitute some of the required time.
- AS degree in Electronics (preferred but not required).
- Valid California Driver License
- Electrical Journey Card State of California DIR, preferred to be current.
- Ability to read complex hydraulic prints.
- Ability to read complex electrical schematics.
- Ability to access read and understands PLC programming code and troubleshoots problems associated with systems or code.
- Ability to troubleshoot complex hydraulic systems with servo and electrical proportional relief valves.
- Ability to design, build and commission electrical systems and teach the operation of such design.
- Ability to work any shift.
- Ability to communicate well and follow directions.

How to Apply:

Send to employment@ncimolding.com (or FAX 916-853-0711) with the job title above specified in the subject line.

Include the following information as a minimum:

- Cover letter or introduction, description of yourself
- Resume

Injection Molding Process Technician

Employer: Northern California Injection Molding, Inc.

Job Description:

Process Technician provides support to the molding department. They set-up, remove, start-up injection molds. The Process Technician is responsible to troubleshoot common and complex molding issues on the shop floor.

Job Duties:

Process Technician is responsible to set up and remove injection molds and related equipment for the operation of the molding machine. They are responsible to place molds and support equipment in assigned locations. Process Technician is responsible to perform line clearances during mold changes. Monitors cycle times, and scrap reduction together with Production Lead. Maintain a clean and safe work environment.

Requirements:

Operate forklift and bridge crane for mold transportation. Should be a high school graduate or have the equivalency. Good mechanical aptitude. Candidates should have basic computer skills and understanding. Must be able to lift 50 pounds.

How to Apply:

Send to employment@ncimolding.com (or FAX 916-853-0711) with the job title above specified in the subject line.

Include the following information as a minimum:

- Cover letter or introduction, description of yourself
- Resume